FRIDAY EVENING SEPT. 6, 1901.

FRARS CANCER.-The Loudon cor respondent of the New York Tribune cables: "Disturbing rumors about the King's health have been in the air for many weeks. The most trustworthy account received from those in touch with the court leaves little ground for doubt that the King has been nervous about the condition of his throat and suspicious that his sister's tate might be suspicious that his sister's tate might be in store for him. Specialists have examined his throat while he has been at Homburg, and they have confirmed the trevious diagnosis that there is no evidence of caucer. There is, however, some disease of the throat which requires constant watching and treatment. My informants state that the King has heen warned against any mental excitement, and that his medical advicers objected strongly to his going to his objected strongly to his going to his sister's deathbed on the ground that the emotion and intensity of his grief would be dangerous. There is a court theory that while the King's throat is not now in a cancerous state it may become so under the influence of mental depres-

MEDICINAL.

Dyspepsia Cure

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boffer; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digrest enough replaced, and we cannot sop the fund of the replaced, and we cannot sop ing repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating. "After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me."—Amzi Bell, Fredonia, Pa.

It can't help but do you good
